Dear People of Peace,

Two weeks ago, it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to you to call me to serve as your next pastor. Leaning on God's help and faithful presence, I humbly accept that call and am anxious to begin my journey with you as we discover what it means for us when we accept Jesus' invitation to follow Him.

As I have served Cross and Crown for over eight years, I intend to celebrate Easter, April 12th one last time with them as their pastor. Then I will set out to join you in Charlottesville. Together, we will begin our ministry on May 1st – barring any as-of-yet unforeseen hiccups in the transition timeline as such things occasionally happen. For now, however, I am very much looking forward to the ways in which God will use you and me to strengthen each another in our shared life in Christ.

In the meantime, know that I am praying for you as I trust you will pray for me!

May Christ's presence in your life be unmistakable today,

Christine R. Wulff, pastor

PS: If you were there for the meet and greet, you may remember that I said I will meet anyone, anywhere to build up the Body of Christ – I meant that. So take a look at your summer calendars and let me know how to meet you where you are - at work, at school, over meals, by the soccer field, at home, on the trails, at the pub, in the city, at the homeless shelter, at the gym ... wherever. The opportunity to love God and love neighbor is absolutely everywhere and we Christians get to take that seriously.
